25X1A

At [redacted] request, I talked to [redacted] about the use of his name in connection with the Eisenhower rally in New York as noted by the New York Times. I mentioned that this could well be taken to be in contravention of the Hatch Act.

25X1A

[redacted] was very appreciative and said he had not seen the Times article and had not authorized the use of his name in connection with the rally. He said he had been called by one of the promoters about the rally and had sent them a small contribution but had not authorized the use of his name and had not intended that it be used. He said he would immediately wire the officials to make sure that no further mention would be made of himself in connection with this rally or any other campaign activities.
